Dynamic chairs for active minds

Sitting isn't passive. It's empowering.
The right chair elevates you.

But every body is different.
And no one sits the same.

Maybe you're an architect, staring out the window,
creating that dream house.

A fashion designer moving around the office
as if it was a runway.

A creative, pausing to stretch every 15 minutes
during a brainstorm.

Or a writer. Typing for days to bring a story to life.

That's why Se7en chairs move with you and unlock your full potential.

Whether you twist, dream, stand, stretch,
spin or sit back and relax.

Se7en fits. Everybody. And every mind.

Mira knows how to make an entrance, quietly. Her curves flow with confidence, her comfort speaks for itself. Wrapped in warmth, designed for clarity. She brings balance to bold spaces and softness to sharp minds. Sit back. Breathe in. Own your calm.

A good chair invites you to regularly change posture – this is called ‘dynamic sitting’. It keeps your blood flowing and helps you feel more energized. We also recommend taking a break or standing for a short period every hour. That way, work and life truly become more enjoyable.

The powerbreak.
